

The Society For Biomaterials Student Chapter Award (2008/2009)

Description

The Society For Biomaterials Chapter Award is to recognize and honor Student Chapters that have demonstrated a strong commitment to promoting the objectives and goals of the Society For Biomaterials.

The SFB Student Chapter Award recipients will receive the following:

- First Place
  - o $500 award from the Society For Biomaterials for chapter events
  - o Certification of Award
  - o Recognition at annual conference
- Second Place
  - o $300 award from the Society For Biomaterials for chapter events
  - o Certification of Award
  - o Recognition at annual conference
- Third Place
  - o $200 award from the Society For Biomaterials for chapter events
  - o Certification of Award
  - o Recognition at annual conference

Required Documents

- Completed award application (see below)
- Detailed description of events and programs organized by the Student Chapter during the 2008/2009 academic year that relate to the objectives and goals of the Society For Biomaterials. Also, please describe how the Student Chapter plans to use the monetary prize.
- Letter of recommendation from Student Chapter advisor

Award Application

University name: _____

University address: _____

Officers: _____
                  _____
                  _____
                  _____

Chapter Advisor: _____

Number of Members: _____

Names of Members: _____
  _____
  _____
  _____

Number of members who attended the 2009 annual conference: _____ or _____ %

Please describe in detail the events and programs organized by the Student Chapter during the 2008/2009 academic year and how they relate to the overall objectives and goals of the Society For Biomaterials. Additionally, please include a description of how the chapter would utilize the monetary award (max. 1000 words).